Despised Contenders Show Form Reversal

Spectators in the Wailuku Gym last Tuesday evening were treated to the best match games seen during the present season. Play was fast and skillful and the finer points of play were more in evidence. The surprise of the season came, also, for the Alerts, looked upon as one of the "also ran" outfits scored a well earned victory over Maui High, relegating that team to second place, score 16 to 12. Absence of Linton from the High School line up is the excuse offered for the defeat of the team.

Another reversal of form was shown by A. A. C. which has been a contender with Puunene for the cellar position. It put up a game fight against the Juniors but was finally nosed out by a score of 14 to 13.

The regular games scheduled for next Tuesday, January 11th, will be played at the Wailuku Gym, Monday, January 11th. Puunene meets Kahului and Maui High meets the Waes. The games scheduled for the Territorial building for Friday, January 14th, will be played at the Wailuku Gym. Puunene Juniors meet Maui High, Wailuku Sugar Seniors meet the Jazz Quintet.

POLO PLAYERS TRIP OFF

Hawaii will not send a polo team to participate in the coming tournament at Del Monte, California. The decision, a sudden one, was announced by President Walter F. Dillingham of the Hawaii Polo and Racing Association last week and the Del Monte officials have been notified of the change of plans.

As early as last summer the subject of sending a team to California was considered favorably and plans, even to the putting in of stalls for 28 ponies on the Lurline, went forward. The

Maui Team Will be in Soccer Championship

In preparation for participation in an Inter-Island championship series, soccer football is to be revived, a league is forming and a second series of games this winter will be arranged. First games of the new series are expected to start a week from tomorrow, Saturday, January 15.

Such was the action taken at a meeting of the Athletic Committee of the Fair and Racing Association at its meeting Monday night. Clinton S. Childs, recently appointed to the Athletic Committee was named representative of the committee on soccer, composed of D. C. Lindsay, Dr. Webb and himself.

Consideration of the invitation to participate in a soccer championship was the chief business of the meeting. The invitation had been sent by S. J. Todd secretary and treasurer of the Honolulu Soccer Association. Acceptance was determined upon and preliminary plans followed. It is expected that the series will be started late in February or early in March and it is recognized that with good material and early season experience practice is necessary before meeting the best that Honolulu, Kauai and Hilo can offer.

TRAP SHOTS BOTHERED

Winds sweeping across the fair grounds in strong gusts with occasional flurries of rain and mist made good shooting an impossibility before the traps at Kahului on New Year's day. Some of the generally reliable fell away off in form and miss after miss was tallied against them. It was a friendly individual match and first honors went to Ledyard, with Palmer second and Dick Penhalow third.

Quite a number of gunners were at the traps again Sunday. Bad weather continued and no match was shot though a number of shooters entered friendly competition. team was to have been composed of Sam Baldwin, Frank F. Baldwin, Harold Castle and Walter Dillingham. Last week some of them found that pressure of business would prevent their making the trip, to fill up another team was impracticable and the proposal had to be abandoned.

Del Monte was to send a team to the islands next summer and whether or not the action of last week will affect such plan or not is as yet unknown.

Sport Brevities

California ran rings around the touted Ohio team, scored 28 points and put another 0 in Ohio.

Duke Kahanamoku was unable to go to Australia with the other Hawaiian swimmers, since he has a suit for libel which he must be here to prosecute.

Ty Cobb says he was not banking for the job of managing the Detroit team but since he has it is determined the Tigers will make an old time showing.

America's Tennis team won the Davis cup from the Australians.

Ohio has declined to play football with Harvard next season since the Grimsoms would not promise a return game the following year.

Danny Long, White Sox scout, is reported to have picked up a phenomenal twirler in Walter Semid of the Santa Rosa, California nine.

Clubs of the American Association last season played to 1,389,325 paid admissions.

Fred Mitchell, late of the Cubs, will manage the Braves next season.

On the Maryland race tracks, it is estimated, $50,000,000 was bet last season.

Tom Davies will captain the Pittsburgh University eleven next season.

Vaudeville Headliners Offer Three Nights of Genuine Entertainment

LELAND C. LEWIS
He appears with McCarthy and Woodcott in Vaudeville on Maui next week.

Vaudeville will hold the boards on Maui for three nights of next week, on Monday evening at the Plantation Theater at Paia, on Tuesday evening at the Wailuku Orpheum and on Wednesday at the Pioneer Theater in Lahaina. The performance in Wailuku is under the auspices of the Wailuku Tennis Club, its share of the proceeds going to that organization.

Myles McCarthy, Alda Woolcott and Leland C. Lewis are the headliners announced for the entertainment of Maui folk next week. The two former are direct from successful tours of the Orpheum, Keith and Poli Circuits of the mainland, following a successful tour of Great Britain and are now on their way to the Orient, making a short stay in the Islands and allowing Maui three nights of that time. They will put on "Reform" and "Can Dreams Come True."

"Reform" is said to be a delightful little take off upon the fads and frivolities that some of the women of today consider it necessary to take up in order to be in the "social swim." The suffering husbands submit to all sorts of idiotic stunts by his society and other half, but, at length turns, and reverses the situation with a vengeance.

Longer than "Reform" but holding its interest quite as well is "Can Dreams Come True," a rich satire on the wiles of the racing game. Ketcham, McCarthy, is a strange combination of money lender and tout and Alda Woolcott has the part of his secretary. The scheme to secure "easy money" from victims is both ingenious and cleverly laid but the denouement is completely unexpected. A charming thread of love story runs all through the number.

Leland C. Lewis, who gives a series of character impersonations with the McCarthy-Woolcott vaudeville performance at Paia, Wailuku and Lahaina, has had the opportunity to be one of the few entertainers who has appeared before the boys of the three branches of the service—the Army, Navy and Marine Corps. Mr. Lewis, a service boy himself, gave his programs to his buddies while in the service and later with the government entertainment board at the various camps, cantonments and naval bases of western United States. He has given programs in every conceivable kind of place—in tents, closely crowded huts, below decks on the submarines, and under the turrets of the gigantic guns on the dreadnaughts. His program, which is styled "The Stories My Buddies Told," is made up of a series of studies from the works of Robert W. Service, Rudyard Kipling and other present-day writers.

Have It Done On Maui

No need to send to Honolulu or the Mainland when it can be done as well and as promptly right at home. You take chances of exasperating delays when you depend upon the mails, the express or freights. Often the want is greater than the worth and a delayed order causes inconvenience and loss. You have to fill the gap with a small order when you might as easily have had
